If God is for us, who can be against us?

Romans 8:31

To the parishioners of Sacred Heart Parish,

It has been one year since my brother-in-law Robert died. His body was buried next to his sister Maria, who I was married to before I became a priest. Maria died of gastric cancer in 2010, a day before her birthday. In his younger years, Rob was quite an athlete. He toured around the country with a tree-planting crew. Rob suffered a lot later in his life. He had Ankylosing Spondylitis. It is a form of arthritis that is inherited genetically. It is more common among Native American males in the Pacific Northwest. When he started experiencing the effects of the disease, there was no effective treatment, so his body began to atrophy because of the tremendous pain he experienced in moving. At first, he tried to drink himself to death, but something happened in his soul, and he regained the will to live. He was involved in the test trials for Remicade. It was like a miracle drug for people in the early stages of the disease. Although it helped Rob, the disease had already exacted a huge toll on his body. He suffered multiple surgeries over 12 years, and his legs were amputated to above his knees. Surely, Rob had to get past the self-pity and the "this isn't fair" mentality. He eventually accepted life as it is. Often imperfect but worth living to a certain point. I cannot imagine how much pain he lived in for so long, yet he enjoyed his life to a certain point. "My God, my God, why have you abandoned me? Why so far from my call for help, from my cries of anguish? My God, I call by day, but you do not answer; by night, but I have no relief. Yet you are enthroned as the Holy One; you are the glory of Israel." (Ps 22: 2-4) Maria and I would visit Rob practically every weekend during those 12 years of surgeries. Maria never abandoned Rob. She was always there for him. "But Zion said, 'The LORD has forsaken me; my Lord has forgotten me.' Can a mother forget her infant, be without tenderness for the child of her womb? Even should she forget, I will never forget you." (Is 49: 14-15) The Incarnation of God shows us who we are. It shows us how God made us in His image. If God chose to take on our flesh and suffer and die with us, what do we have to fear? "If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare his own Son but handed him over for us all, how will he not also give us everything else along with him?" (Rom 8: 31b-32) Yes, Lord, you give us everything. Let us praise Him and give Him thanks for His love endures forever.

Yours in Christ,

Fr Steve Garza

HELLO
my name is

Greetings my brothers and sisters in Christ. I am Aaron Croxford and I am honored to be serving as the Director of Religious Education and Youth Ministry. I am grateful for this opportunity to serve Sacred Heart Parish.

My walk in the fullness of the Roman Catholic Church began in 2010. I received for the first time the Sacraments of Reconciliation, the Holy Eucharist, and Confirmation. I had been raised in a devout and loving Christian home that both supported and encouraged me through the OCIA process.

I have lived in Klamath Falls for most of my life and I intend to remain in the Klamath Falls area for many more years. My parents and grandparents continue to be residents of Klamath Falls. Klamath Falls is my home and I am committed to seeing it grow in faith and holiness.

My education aided me in better understanding myself and my desire to serve God. I graduated from Oregon Institute of Technology with a degree in Applied Psychology. I then pursued a Masters Degree in the Art of Teaching from Southern Oregon University. During this time I was able to see the "way of the world" and it became evident that I could only really find peace in the love of Jesus Christ. As St. Augustine wrote, "My heart is restless until it rests in Thee."

I look forward to meeting with the Sacred Heart Community. I will be working in the 8th street offices. I am available Tuesday through Thursday from 8:30am until 4:30pm. I have been shown how to work the coffee machine and would love to enjoy some time with you. Aaron Croxford

On the weekend of December 9-10, 2023

the annual collection that benefits approximately 24,000 elderly religious sisters, brothers, and religious order priests across the United States will be taken. Green offering envelopes can be found in the pews and in the vestibule. For those of you who give on line you will find a separate fund for this offering. ## Retirement Fund for Religious

Please give to those who have given a lifetime.

Traditionally, Catholic sisters, brothers and religious order priests have dedicated their lives to Church ministries such as parishes, schools and health-care institutions, usually with little to no compensation. Consequently, a significant number currently have insufficient retirement funds.

You can help. "Religious are blessed to serve," says Dominican Father Bertrand Ebbled, age 90. Please donate to the Retirement Fund for Religious on the weekend of December 9-10. Your gift will provide essential care for nearly 25,000 senior sisters, brothers and religious order priests who have dedicated their lives to serving others. Let us show our gratitude to these selfless individuals by giving generously.

The most important way to help senior religious is to ask God to bless and provide for those who have faithfully served our Church and world. Please also pray for the success of the annual appeal and know that women and men religious across the nation hold in prayerful gratitude all those whose sacrifices make the Retirement Fund for Religious possible
